Our Mission - Notre mission

The Mission of the Natl CJCR Sp Gp is to: support and deliver a Cadet Program that contributes to the development and preparation of youth for the transition to adulthood, enabling them to meet the challenges of modern society, through a dynamic, community-based program; and support the delivery of the JCR Program by the Canadian Army (CA) which provides a structured youth program and promotes traditional cultures and lifestyles, in remote and isolated communities in Canada.

The Mission of the Cadet Training Centre is to: provide cadets with a safe, challenging and enjoyable training experience that fully meets the expectations of the CAF/DND, cadets, parents, the applicable League and the adult staff.

La mission du Gp S Nat CRJC est : d'appuyer et de livrer un programme des cadets qui contribue au développement des jeunes et les prépare à la vie adulte en leur permettant de rencontrer les défis d'une société moderne, par l'entremise d'un programme communautaire dynamique; et en appuyant la prestation du programme des RJC par l'Armée canadienne (AC) qui fournit un programme pour jeunes structuré et qui a pour but de promouvoir les modes de vie et les cultures traditionnelles dans des communautés éloignées et isolées au Canada.

La mission du Centre d'entraînement des cadets est: d'assurer aux cadets une expérience d'entraînement intéressante, qui représente un défi tout en se déroulant dans un environnement sécuritaire, et qui rencontre les attentes des FAC/MDN, cadets, parents, les Ligues et le personnel adulte.

Reception

Brigadier-General K.L. Woiden, OMM, CD

Commander National Cadet And Junior Canadian Rangers Support Group

Brigadier-General Woiden spent 5 years as an Army Cadet before joining the Canadian Forces Army Reserve as an Armoured Reconnaissance Crewman with the British Columbia Dragoons in 1975. He was posted to the Royal Canadian Dragoons in Germany for a flyover task in 1978 and in 1981 was commissioned as an officer. In 1984, he moved to Calgary, Alberta and transferred to The King's Own Calgary Regiment serving as a Troop Leader and Battle Captain.

After completing an Advanced Diploma in Aeronautical Engineering Technology and a Diploma (Honours) in Mechanical Engineering Technology from the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology he moved to Winnipeg, Manitoba in 1988 for civilian employment and transferred to The Fort Garry Horse. During thirteen years of Regimental service, he served in numerous command positions from Battle Captain to Commanding Officer in 1997. Brigadier-General Woiden attended the National Security Studies Seminar in 2001 and served in various staff appointments at 38 Canadian Brigade Group (CBG) and Land Force Western Area. He was recalled to 38 CBG as Deputy Commander in April 2003.

In June 2004, Brigadier-General Woiden was promoted to Colonel and appointed Commander of 38 CBG, relinquishing command in March 2007. He completed the Advanced Military Studies Programme at Canadian Forces College, Toronto in 2007. On 12 January 2008, Brigadier-General Woiden was promoted to his current rank and appointed Deputy Commander Land Force Western Area (LFWA) and Joint Task Force West (JTFW).

In March 2011, he deployed as the Assistant Commanding General – Afghanistan National Army Development for NATO Training Mission – Afghanistan for ten months. He was responsible for Coalition efforts in developing the Afghan Ministry of Defence and the General Staff. Upon his return to Canada he was appointed Director General Land Reserve and Chief of Staff Army Reserve. On 6 October 2015, he was appointed Commander of the National Cadet and Junior Canadian Rangers Support Group.

While serving as a part time Reservist, Brigadier-General Woiden was employed at Bristol Aerospace Ltd in Winnipeg, Manitoba from 1988 to 2012. He held various engineering, flight test, program management and business development positions. When he left Bristol he was the Manager of the Composites Manufacturing Centre. He also has a Certificate in Management from the University of Manitoba.

His interests include running, flying, cooking and scuba diving.

The
Surgeon Captain Gordon P. Fahrni, DSC, MD
Award

Cadet CPO1 Riley Howells,
49 John Travers Cornwell, VC, RCSCC

Cadet CPO1 Riley Howells will enrol in the welding program at Red River College, but his longer term objective is to enrol in the Royal Canadian Navy as a Hull Technician.

He first became interested in welding through the Vocational Program at Murdoch MacKay Collegiate. He has also completed the Shipwright course within Cadets, which further exposed him to the trade.

He has been a Cadet since 2011 and received the Top Bandsman Award. He has attended several Cadet training programs during the summer including General Training, Basic Musician and Drill and Ceremonial. He has been the Staff Cadet for the Regional Interdivisional Competition, National Marksmanship and Regional Sail Regatta.

He volunteers at the local Legion Branch on an as required basis and helps to set-up for Veterans' Teas and Lunches, their poppy campaign, and Remembrance Day services.

As a senior Cadet, he sets the example and is a role model for others. Some people have referred to him as the 'go to person' because he can get things done.

He has earned the Silver fitness level and is a member of the school football team where he plays defensive back. He enjoys running, long distance bike riding and snowboarding.

The Manitoba Navy League Division
Award

Cadet PO1 Rheanne Millet,
49 John Travers Cornwell, VC, RCSCC

Cadet PO1 Rheanne Millet is a student at St. Mary's Academy and will attend the University of Winnipeg Integrated Education program where she will study to become a high school teacher. She is particularly interested in English and Psychology.

She received the four-year service medal in 2015 and was recognized as the Top Junior Cadet in her Cadet Corps. She has participated in both the Seamanship and Tall Ship Deployments in Victoria, BC. She has competed in several drill and marksmanship competitions. She is also the Drum Major of her Corps and has been actively involved in the band since joining the Cadets in 2012.

She is active within the Filipino and church communities and has performed at Folklorama. Within her Corps, she participates in the poppy campaign and has been a member of the band at Remembrance Day Services.

She instructs music theory and drill within her Corps and has been a leader in seamanship classes.

She plays basketball and has earned the Bronze level of Cadet fitness.

The Lieutenant Laurence Gillmor Sherman
Award

Cadet CWO Gisele Irakoze, 553 Sgt Tommy Prince, MM, RCACC

Cadet CWO Irakoze will attend the University of Winnipeg where she will study Criminal Justice with the intent of becoming a police officer in the future. She speaks five languages: English, French, Kinyarwanda, Luganda and Swahili.

She has attended summer Cadet training in Bagotville, Vernon and Cold Lake and participated in a tour of battlefields in Europe in 2016. She qualified as a Master Cadet in 2016 and completed the Mantario Trail in 2016, and an International Expedition to Chile in 2017.

She was the top female Cadet in her unit for three consecutive years and was awarded the Legion Medal of Excellence in 2016.

She volunteered for more than 200 hours in the past three years with organizations such as Downtown Winnipeg Biz, Siloam Mission, Special Olympics, Festival du Voyageur, and Canadian Blood Services. Within Cadets she has volunteered with the National Marksmanship Competition, Remembrance Day Services, Vimy Ridge Commemoration parades as well as the local Centennial Neighbourhood Cleanup.

CWO Irakoze is a leader within her unit and sets the standard for junior Cadets. She instructs classes and mentors new Cadets.

She earned the Silver level of physical fitness and has played basketball for Windsor Park Collegiate.

Cadet CWO Evan Dyson,
2520 (71 Battery) RCACC

Cadet CWO Evan Dyson attended Vincent Massey High and plans to become a corporate lawyer. He will initially study business administration at Simon Fraser University before moving on to Law.

Within the Cadet program he has earned the Bronze Level of the Duke of Edinburgh Award, a City of Brandon Award for Volunteerism and the RCMP Top Red Star Cadet Award. He attended the Wild Winter Expedition in 2016.

He is active with the 26 Field Regiment Pipe and Drums and has been a volunteer at the Westman Multicultural Festival and Remembrance Services in the City of Brandon.

He is the Regimental Sergeant Major of his unit and provides leadership and guidance to junior Cadets. He is also the Pipe Major, which allows him to instruct junior Cadets and be a role model.

He has been a member of the school rugby team for four years as well as the soccer team for three years.

The Janice and Barry Rempel
Honorary Colonels' Air Cadet Scholarship
Award

Cadet WO2 Anson Chan,
170 St James RCACS

Cadet WO2 Anson Chan attends Fort Richmond Collegiate and plans to continue his studies at the University of Manitoba in the Faculty of Science. His ultimate objective is to become a dentist. He is fluent in English and Cantonese.

He has attended several Cadet training programs including Basic Aviation, Advanced Aviation, and the Glider Pilot Scholarship Course. Additionally he was on the Squadron marksmanship team. He was selected to attend the 2017 International Air Cadet Exchange to the United Kingdom.

He volunteers at the Victoria General Hospital on weekends. He is normally assigned a number of tasks to support the staff and patients. These consist of things such as delivering newspapers and lab results. He has also volunteered at the Saul and Claribel Simkin Centre, which is a seniors' home. The duties normally consist of assisting residents and staff within the facility. On some occasions he has served as an accompanist for a singer.

He is also active with the school's Amnesty International Club that does charity work such as bake sales and other fund raising events.

170 St. James Squadron has more than 130 Cadets, and he is the Squadron Commander. He is personally in-charge of 60 Cadets and ensures their standards of drill, dress and deportment are up to standard. He teaches classes in aviation and shares his personal experiences.

He has played on the school volleyball team and is currently a member of the badminton team. His fitness was further confirmed when he achieved the Excellence rating in the Cadet Fitness Assessment.

The Flight Sergeant Fred Marean
Award

Cadet WO2 Adam Gislason,

Cadet WO2 Adam Gislason is enrolled in the immersion program at École Secondaire Oak Park High School and is bilingual. He plans to study engineering at the University of Manitoba. He aspires to become a Snowbird Pilot with the RCAF.

He recently earned his glider pilot license and has received an award for Aviation Excellence.

He has completed several Cadet programs during the summers that will assist him to meet his aspirations of becoming a pilot. He is also a skilled musician and has been a member of the Cadet Honour Band on three separate occasions. He has used his skills as a musician to help other Cadets to play the trombone, trumpet, euphonium/baritone, saxophone, flute and percussion.

He was selected to attend the Air Cadet League General Annual Meeting where he was given the opportunity to present some of his ideas for future leaders of the Cadet Program.

He is a team captain at the annual Cerebral Palsy Association Stationary Bike Race, which is its sole fund raising event.

He is a Squadron Warrant Officer in his unit and leads and coaches junior Cadets.

He has a double black stripe in Tae Kwon Do. He is also a member of the Oak Park Raiders football team.

The Lieutenant-Colonel (Ret'd) James R. Popplow,
CD, BSc, BEd, MD, MSc, ABPM (AM), FACPM
Award

Cadet WO2 Cody Lincoln,
249 Beausejour RCACS

Cadet WO2 Cody Lincoln is a student at École Edward Schreyer School and will attend the University of Manitoba. He aspires to study aerospace engineering where he will use that training in conjunction with his pilot's license. Major airlines now require their pilots to have a degree and his studies will assist him to meet his goal.

When he was 12 he attended the Young Eagles Air Academy where he became interested in the Cadet program. He joined with the intentions of qualifying as a pilot and has done that.

He has participated in a variety of other Cadet programs. He has been part of the competitive marksmanship team for several years. He is a member of the Air Cadet Concert Band. He is an experienced public speaker and won the Effective Public Speaking Gold Medal in 2017. He earned the Outstanding Cadet Award in 2016 and was also the top shot in 2016.

He participates in the National RCMP Youth Advisory Committee, which is a virtual group that weighs in on current issues affecting youth and justice. He has volunteered at Siloam Mission, Winnipeg Harvest and the annual poppy campaign. He has delivered speeches for Remembrance Day and other Cadet and aviation related engagements.

His unit has grown from 20 to 60 Cadets in the past few years. That has provided him with additional opportunities to teach and mentor new recruits. He has also helped other Cadets with their schoolwork on non-Cadet evenings.

He plays Varsity basketball and enjoys waterskiing, canoeing, swimming and hiking. He has earned the Duke of Edinburgh Silver Award and has Bronze Cross and Bronze Medallions from the Life Saving Society.

The Honorary Colonel

The Royal Military Institute of Manitoba Award

Cadet WO2 Marika Dewar-Norosky,
317 Strathclair RCACS

Cadet WO2 Dewar-Norosky attended Strathclair Community School and has enrolled in the engineering program at the University of Manitoba. She is particularly interested in Biosystems and Environmental Engineering. One of her objectives is to continue to support her unit as an adult and attending the University of Manitoba will help facilitate that as well as allow her to continue to do some other local volunteer work.

She is a recipient of the Lord Strathcona Medal, the Royal Canadian Legion Medal of Excellence and the Long Service Medal. She has completed both the Glider and Power Pilot Camps in 2015 and 2016 respectively.

Within her Squadron she has won several awards including Most Dedicated Cadet, Marksmanship, Best Senior NCO, and Mentorship Award.

She has been a volunteer at the Women in Aviation Day. She has been part of the Women's Fly Day and has taken young Cadets on their familiarization flights. She is a medical first responder with St. John Ambulance and is in the process of training to be a first aid instructor. In addition to these volunteer activities she has found the time to participate in the Countryfest in Dauphin and is a member of the local fire department. She is involved with the 4-H.

She has helped her unit by developing and delivering a presentation to local schools to promote the program and encourage youth to consider joining.

She started a Ground School Programme so other Cadets with the same dream could have the resources and assistance to help them.

When she was an aspirant for the Glider Pilot Scholarship, she felt that as a petite person she might need more strength so she started a vigorous resistance-training program. She has participated in other sports such as alpine skiing and biking.

Our Vision - Notre vision

Natl CJCR Sp Gp: A centre of excellence that supports the delivery of the Cadet and JCR programs in the most effective and efficient manner possible. In close coordination with our League partners and the CA, we will place the majority of our resources and efforts at the community level and ensure the confidence and safety of all participants.

Cadet Program: A relevant, credible and proactive youth development organization, offering the program of choice for Canada's youth, preparing them to become the leaders of tomorrow through a set of fun, challenging, well-organized and safe activities.

JCR Program: In a dynamic and learning partnership, the JCR Program strives to strengthen remote and isolated communities through an altruistic, responsible, and practical youth program that embraces culture and tradition, promotes healthy living and positive self-image, and reflects the proud military legacy of the Canadian Rangers

Gp S Nat CRJC: un centre d'excellence qui soutient la prestation des programmes des cadets et RJC de la manière la plus efficace et efficiente possible. En collaboration étroite avec nos partenaires des Ligues et de l'AC nous concentrerons la majorité de nos efforts et nos ressources au niveau communautaire afin d'assurer la confiance et la sécurité de tous les participants.

Programme des cadets: un organisme de développement pour jeunes pertinent, crédible et proactif qui offre un programme de choix aux jeunes du Canada, les préparant à devenir les chefs de demain, en leur offrant des défis et des activités amusantes qui sont bien organisées et sécuritaires.

Programme des RJC: grâce à un partenariat d'apprentissage dynamique, le programme des RJC vise à renforcer les communautés éloignées et isolées au Canada en offrant un programme altruiste, responsable et pratique qui embrasse la culture et les traditions, préconise la santé et le bien-être et la fierté de l'image de soi, et qui reflète le fier héritage militaire des Rangers canadiens.

Supporting Manitoba cadets

The Hubbell Awards Scholarship Fund, held at The Winnipeg Foundation, is a permanent endowment that provides annual monetary awards to recognize outstanding Manitoba cadets and help them realize their educational goals.

You can help support tomorrow's leaders and ensure future cadets are rewarded for excellent citizenship, academics and fitness. Gifts of any amount are welcome; all are permanently invested to provide stability for this award program.

You may also consider a planned gift to the Hubbell Awards – an easy and meaningful way to create your own personal legacy. You can support the Awards through a gift in your will, retirement assets, life insurance or other options. Staff of The Winnipeg Foundation have a wealth of experience and are available to help you through this process.

If you choose to make a planned gift, you will automatically be included in The Winnipeg Foundation's Legacy Circle, a program that recognizes those who have chosen to support the community with a promise to a fund at the Foundation.
